Admission charges	Children and youth under 19 (with valid Photo ID) have free entrance. 2 accompanying adults free for every 17 pupils.
Registration	If you do not want to make use of our educational activities, no registration is required for a visit to the museum. Please note that we are closed on Tuesdays.
Food and drink	Snacks brought with you may be enjoyed in the ground-floor lobby, as well as in the access areas to the showrooms on the mezzanine floor and on the first floor (seating is also available here). Food and drink are not permitted in the showrooms. The restaurant on the first floor serves drinks, snacks, lunch menus and à la carte dishes.
Cloakroom	There are lockers for groups on the mezzanine floor, € 2 coins are needed as deposits.

Please communicate the following information to your group:

- Only use the lift when necessary, otherwise use the stairs.
- Food and drink are not allowed in the showrooms.
- Show consideration for other visitors (moderate volume, step back to allow other people to enjoy objects and stations if necessary)
- Freestanding objects may be touched carefully if there is no sign saying otherwise.
Do not touch cordoned-off objects.
- Photography is allowed (no tripods).
- The display cases have historic glass panels, not safety glass. Running or bumping into and placing weight on display cases is dangerous.

Educational activities school groups can enjoy without prior booking

- Digital Planetarium: In addition to the public screenings www.nhm.at/en/planetarium, groups can rent the whole planetarium for foreign-language fulldome shows; please contact tourismus@nhm.at or anmeldung@nhm.at for details.
- Audioguides: available at the info desk (€ 6,- per audioguide)
- Shark Alarm: virtual tour at the large display case in the shark hall (Mon, Wed, Thu, Fri: 1.30 p.m., 3.00 p.m., 4.30 p.m.)
